

BLOOD DONATION CONSENT AND TERMS AGREEMENT

1. Purpose of Agreement

This agreement outlines the terms and conditions under which the undersigned individual ("Donor") consents to donate blood or blood components to [Blood Donation Organization] ("Organization").

3. Voluntary Donation

The Donor acknowledges that blood donation is completely voluntary. The Donor may choose to stop the donation process at any time, without any penalty or loss of benefits. The Organization may also, at its discretion, terminate the donation process if it deems the donation not in the best interest of the Donor or potential recipients.

4. Confidentiality

All personal and medical information provided by the Donor will be treated as confidential and will only be disclosed to those who need the information to determine the safety and suitability of the donation or as otherwise required by law.

5. Risks and Side Effects

The Donor understands that donating blood may involve certain risks, including but not limited to:

- Mild discomfort, bruising, or bleeding at the needle site.
- Dizziness or fainting.
- Allergic reactions.
- In rare cases, more serious medical complications such as infection or injury.

The Donor acknowledges that these risks have been explained and agrees to assume all risks associated with the donation process.

6. Testing and Use of Blood

The Donor understands that their blood will be tested for a variety of infections and diseases, including HIV, hepatitis, and other conditions that may affect the safety of the donated
